III. Claimant's Interests:

Each of the assets designated in the Government's Amended Complaint for Forfeiture filed herein are part of the Estate of Brett A. Cook (the "Estate"). On June 30, 2022, the Registrar for the County Court of Douglas County, Nebraska, issued a Statement of Informal Probate appointing Blake Cook as Personal Representative for the Estate (Case No. PR 22-1081). The Personal Representative has a fiduciary duty to settle and distribute the estate of the decedent, according to the terms of the decedent's probated last will and the laws of the state of Nebraska, and in accordance with the best interests of the successors to the estate (See Neb. Rev. Stat. § 30-2464). Further, according to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 30-2470, the Personal Representative has both the power and the obligation to take possession and control of the decedent's property, and is obligated to take all steps reasonably necessary to manage, protect, and preserve the property of the decedent. The laws of Nebraska also provide that no claim can be pursued against the estate of a decedent until a personal representative has been appointed for that estate (See Neb. Rev. Stat. § 30-2404).

Additionally, the Brett A. Cook Revocable Trust (the "Trust") is the owner of each of the assets identified above. Blake Cook was named as the successor Trustee of the Trust, pursuant to Section 11 of the Amended and Restated Trust Agreement Creating the Brett A. Cook Revocable Trust. As Trustee, Blake Cook has a fiduciary duty to administer the Trust as required by Nebraska law. Those duties include paying Trust creditors and other Trust liabilities, and paying his attorneys and other professionals, including CPA's, to assist with the legal filings and other necessary legal work for the administration of the Trust. He is required to administer the Trust in good faith in accordance with its terms and purposes and the interest of the beneficiaries in accordance with the Nebraska Uniform Trust Code. See Neb. Rev. Stat. § 30-3866.

WHEREFORE, Blake Cook, as Personal Representative and Trustee, respectfully requests that the above-captioned civil judicial forfeiture matter be stayed, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 981(g)(2), and that the Court enter an "order necessary to preserve the value of the property or to protect the rights of lienholders or other persons with an interest in the property while the stay is in effect." See 18 U.S.C. § 981(g)(6).

DATED this 25th day of August, 2022.

Blake Cook, Personal Representative of the Estate of Brett A. Cook and Trustee for the Brett A. Cook Revocable Trust,
